

DoLS Assessors Conference

Edge is pleased to announce that our conference for DoLS Assessors will be held on 12th March 2015 at Lincoln's Inn, London. The conference may be used as part of the annual refresher training for either BIAs or Mental Health Assessors and a certificate will be provided for each delegate according to their role.

Speakers:

Alex Ruck Keene Edge trainer and barrister (39 Essex Street chambers) will provide a DoLS case law update

Nicholas Paines QC from the Law Commission will provide an update on the review of DoLS and deprivation of liberty outside of the DoLS regime

Steven Richards Edge director and Mental Health Act Reviewer for the CQC will provide a 'news flash' on the latest DoLS news and statistics

Javeda Jafri Edge trainer who was previously a lead practitioner for implementation of the MCA across health and social care in Hertfordshire and had a lead role in establishing their Supervisory Body will discuss the practice issues resulting from the 'surge' in DoLS Applications in the first quarter after Cheshire West. Hertfordshire had 1729 applications in the first quarter post Cheshire West.

Aasya Mughal barrister and Edge director will provide a run through of the top 5 mental capacity assessment mistakes.

Questions to the Speakers- delegates will have the opportunity to put their questions to the speakers in dedicated plenary sessions.

Quiz- Test your DoLS knowledge against your colleagues to win a prize!
